► SPOTLIGHT

FRANK TSAI

PARTNER, ARIZONA CENTER FOR CANCER CARE

Family: Wife, Yvette; 18-month-old son, Lucas

Favorite cuisine: Slowly smoked barbecue

Hobbies: Photographing the beautiful sunsets in Arizona

Education: Oncology/hematology training, Boston University

Hometown: Flushing, N.Y.

What attracted you to your new opportunity?: I am impressed by the center's ability to offer intimate hometown medicine with university-level treatment options.

Most exciting prior business experience: Attending physician at Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center. It was a privilege and a humbling experience to work with some of the most inspiring oncologists in the world.

Career advice: I feel our biggest competitor is ourselves. I enjoy the challenge of asking myself: How can we do this better?

First job: Caretaker for my own mother, who was diagnosed with cancer when I was in medical school. She continues to be a source of inspiration and empathy.
